Customer Reviews

My daughter ordered this, but when it came, it seemed flimsy (like a coloring book). It is larger than the kind of address book she had in mind, but I suppose we didn't pay attention to the dimensions. We tried to return it, but it cost almost $5!!!! I guess we also didn't notice the return policy! I am used to returns being easy and free on . Oh well. Returning it wasn't worth it to us, so we kept it, but the cover is still gorgeous.

This product was purchased for an elderly home care client of my wife. The person in question is somewhat vision impaired, and is unable to use an electronic method of storing contacts. She wanted something easy to read, and equally important, easy to find. This thing is big (8.5x11") and pretty enough to leave out. The contact pages have plenty of information spaces, and plenty of spaces for multiple contacts. The paper is heavy enough to be sturdy, but not so heavy as to overwhelm. The client loves it, my wife got to be a hero, and everyone was happy, even me, because it wasn't that expensive. For people who don't want/trust/understand smart phones, this is the way to go.

This address book does not have alphabetic tabs.
