I am so extremely proud of my amazing mentor Carrie Dickie. She has written a book full of heart. In this book Carrie shares the real and authentic journey of what it takes to be a successful network marketing professional. This book is a perfect blend of motivation, inspiration, and practical skill building. A must read for all Network Marketers.

Carrie Dickie transforms the notion that network marketing/direct sales businesses don't work. In this truth and heart-filled book she elevates this business model from the vilified bottom of the barrel to its rightful place as the most democratic business model of all. It is a business model that relies on hard work, serving others and building relationships rather than the haphazard game of playing office politics found in traditional business. The book debunks the myth that "only people at the top make money" and in a practical and genuine way, Dickie provides a path for all to be successful in this industry, whatever company they choose as their vehicle for success. This book is masterful, informational, instructive, intelligent and thoughtful, written in a clear and concise manner in a very readable way. It is a "must read" for beginners and a wonderful review and paradigm shifter for those who have been working a network marketing or direct sales business for a while who may need some inspiration. I highly recommend it!

Carrie's book has captured the essence of Carrie herself! It is full of compassion, entrepreneurial genius, heart-driven wisdom, and sincerity. Carrie Dickie beautifully conveys how Network Marketing, when operated from the heart, can be a phenomenal journey of personal growth as well as a pathway to financial freedom. This book is a MUST for anyone in network marketing who's looking for more than the nuts & bolts of NM!

Carie Dickie is awesome A must read for everyone whether you are in Network Marketing or not. If you are not selling then you are sold. Are you selling (seeking) the life you like or you are sold (buying) the life you don't like? If you are happy with your life you have everything you want, then this is great book to read and teach others. If you are NOT happy with your life and don't have everything you want, then this is an excellent book to help you find ways to be happy.

I am Carrie's mother, Jane. That might lead you to think I am biased. I AM. Having known Carrie all her life, I am aware of her insecurities as a childfor whatever reasons. She has been on a path of self development for years and she is getting smarter and healthier every day. She knows the Network Marketing industry inside and out, having built two successful businesses. I find her bright, sensitive, compassionate and generous with her time and treasure. This book is her offering to anyone who hopes to achieve the degree of financial and time freedom that she has achieved. I dabbled in Networking for a number of years while running my fund raising business. Had Carrie's book been available 30 years ago, I could possibly had great success in the field. It wasn't. It is now! I encourage anyone who has even a remote interest in building a Network Marketing business (or those who could use a little dose of compassionate common sense) to spend a few hours with Carrie. I think you will find it time well spent. She is succinct, humorous and "on target." I think you'll benefit. I did.
